A Sterling Institution.

Of the many institutions and enterprises in Mt. Sterling none are dearer to the front than the Exchange Bank of Kentucky. It has stood the tests of the financial crisis for the past three score years and has been in popular honor and a money earner during all this period. It shows a healthy deposit all the while of near $200,000 and its customers are prompt paying individuals and the present outlook is far better than it has been. It is manned by young men of experience, push, pluck and enterprise. Its president is Dr. J. A. Shirley with John S. Frazer cashier, C. R. Holly assistant cashier, and J. H. Kemper individual bookkeeper. The Directors are J. A. Shirley, H. R. Prewitt, A. M. Bourne, Thomas Grubbs, and because of poor health Rev. W. T. Tibbs resigned and was succeeded by that live business man, Mr. Thomas Kennedy, who will give attention to the business affairs of the bank. This is the only State bank in Mt. Sterling and it is going out for all the business they can handle, that would be consistent with conservative banking principles.
